Dear Jim,

Thank you for the book One More Sunset. I look forward to the off season when I can take time to enjoy the book. I appreciate your thoughtfulness and support.

It is special gifts like yours that continue to reinforce my decision to take the head coaching position at the University of Notre Dame. Notre Dame is a university like no other. Its uniqueness lies within the mission for a faith-based education with excellence in academics, athletics and service.

Go Irish!
Sincerely,
